Description

An unforgettable journey of discovery awaits you in autumn—one of Japan's most spectacular seasons—amidst a landscape transformed into shades of red and gold. The tour begins in Tokyo, offering the chance to explore both the historic and modern facets of the city. Next, a bullet train ride takes you to Kanazawa to visit Kenroku-en, one of Japan's finest landscape gardens, and the historic teahouse district. The UNESCO World Heritage site of Shirakawa-go and the traditional atmosphere of Takayama offer an intimate look at rural Japanese life, while in Kyoto, temples and gardens harmonizing with the autumn foliage create breathtaking scenery. The final leg of the tour explores the historic charm of Nara and the vibrant urban energy of Osaka, culminating in a comprehensive experience that showcases Japan's rich natural and cultural heritage.
