Description

Embark on an unforgettable journey during the cherry blossom season—one of Japan's most enchanting times of year. On this tour, you will explore the blend of Tokyo's modern lifestyle and traditional atmosphere; after visiting the city's iconic landmarks, you will have the opportunity to witness Japan's unique natural beauty firsthand through a day trip to Mount Fuji and the Hakone region. You will travel by bullet train to Kyoto—where you can step back in time amidst historic temples, bamboo forests, and traditional streets—and see free-roaming deer in Nara, before concluding your tour in Osaka, a city known for its vibrant urban life, shopping districts, and the famous Dotonbori area. This itinerary is ideal for those wishing to discover both Japanese culture and the country's most significant cities amidst the pink hues of the cherry blossoms.
